Dear Ms. Graham:

On behalf of The Jewish Guild for the Blind, thank you for your generous gift of $33,000 from the Graham Family Foundation. According to your instructions, the grant will be allocated as follows:

- $13,000 is the first installment of a $40,000 pledge payable over three years to name one Eye Exam Lane at The Jewish Guild for the Blind and Columbia University's Low Vision Center;
- $6,000 is for our Saturday Computer Program;
- $6,000 is for Art and Music Therapy at The Guild School;
- $8,000 is for our Academic and Communication Skills Program.

Your continued commitment and support helps The Guild foster and facilitate lives of independence and dignity for those who have lost or are losing their vision. Using our knowledge, skill and expertise, we design, deliver and disseminate programs and services that enhance physical, emotional, and intellectual functioning for the whole person.

Thank you, once again, for your vote of confidence in the work of The Guild and your generosity.

Sincerely,

Alan R. Morse, JD, PhD
