Dear Dorothy,

Thank you for your gift of $7,00.00 to the Southern Poverty Law Center, of which half was allocated to our Teaching Tolerance department and the other half was allocated to our Juvenile Justice Project as desired.

Together, we are making a difference. We're standing up to injustice in courtrooms and classrooms throughout the nation, and – with your help – we'll continue toward the day when equal opportunity is a reality for all people.

Our civil suits have shut down violent hate groups and won justice to their victims. We're pulling back the curtain on extremists and providing law enforcement with the latest and best intelligence about these potentially dangerous groups. Because of the generous support of individuals like you, we've become "one of the most respected anti-terrorist organizations in the world" (National Review). And we're providing our Teaching Tolerance education materials to thousands of teachers across the country – free of charge.

Morris Dees, our founder, will try to reach you by phone in the coming weeks to thank you personally for your support. Until then, I send our warmest regards and deepest gratitude.

Sincerely,
